SEASONS IN LIFE

by Solomon Karunakaran

We have now entered into the summer season, a time when the days are longer and the night is short. Many activities that cannot take place during other times of the year can be done now. Most families take a vacation during the summer by going on long road trips to visit families and friends, tourist places and amusement parks. It is a refreshing time of the year. As people are different, some like summer and others do not. They like other seasons better. God has created such diversity in the nature outside and also inside each of us.

Similarly, in our spiritual lives there are seasons. There are seasons when we are excited and feel close to the Lord. There are other seasons when we feel so far away and the night seems very long like in the winter. There are seasons like spring and fall when new things spring forth into being and circumstances change like the colors of fall. As the hymn writer writes (a few stanzas from that hymn that capture this thought):

Through all the changing scenes of life,
in trouble and in joy,
the praises of my God shall still my heart and tongue employ.

Oh, magnify the Lord with me;
with me exalt his name;
when in distress to him I called,
he to my rescue came.

Fear him, ye saints, and you will then have nothing else to fear;
make you his service your delight,
your wants shall be his care.

JESUS CHRIST IS THE SAME YESTERDAY AND TODAY AND FOREVER.

Yes, as we praise Him through the storms of life, the Lord will continuously save us in response to our cries. With nothing else to fear we can serve him as He faithfully provides all of our needs.

In whatever life season we are in, we can be totally assured that our God does not change.
“Malachi 3:6, I the Lord do not change.” What does this mean? His character attributes of love, compassion, gentleness, goodness, comfort and more never changes. “Hebrews 13:8, Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.” No matter how dark or bright or cloudy the sky may be in this current season of our life we can continue to rely on the loving kindness of our Savior to carry us through and bring us safely to the other side.
